MODIFICATION ESPOUSED BY BUCKNER

BOW TO CLAMOR OF WETS OR EXPEND GREAT SUMS

Claims He Could Enforce Prohibition If Given the Necessary Machinery and If Congress Would Provide For Police Court Instead of Jury Trials For Petty Offenders.

Liberalization of the Volstead act as a means of checking crime and as an incentive for New York state to adopt dry laws of its own was urged Thursday before a senate committee at the fourth day's presentation of the wet side of the prohibition issue at Washington.

Winding up two days of testimony, U. S. District Attorney Buckner, of New York City proposed modification as an inducement for New York state to reenact an enabling act which would permit its police to cooperate with the federal agencies in enforcing the law.

Modification to check the spread of crime, insanity and the sale of poisonous liquor was advocated in statements filed with the committee by George E. Brennan, Democratic national committeeman from Illinois, and Anton J. Cermak, heading a special committee from Cook county and Chicago.

Altho both came here from Chicago to appear in person, neither Mr. Brennan, who is the Democratic candidate for senator from Illinois, nor Mr. Cermak took the stand, submitting instead written statements and a long list of statistics. These were offered in the record by Julian Codman of Boston, counsel for the wets.

District Attorney Buckner, the only witness heard at the two hour session expressed the view that he could enforce prohibition if given the necessary machinery and if congress would provide for police court instead of jury trials for "petty" offenders.

If jury trials are required Mr. Buckner said 85 additional district judges are needed for his district, with accompanying district attorneys, clerks, marshals, stenographers and a total enforcement force at 1500 dry agents.

Machinery for the whole state of New York, he estimated, would cost $75,000,000 annually if all trials were by juries and $8,000,000 if "petty offenders" were tried by commissioners without juries. He advocated the latter method of trial, declaring that this would greatly facilitate the disposition of cases.

Protesting against the proposal that the dry law should pay its own enforcement, Mr. Buckner said this would be a bad situation; that the treasury should collect revenue and the department of justice enforce the laws.

Jail sentences rather than fines were urged by the district attorney as the most effective way of bringing about observance of the prohibition laws. He asserted that hundreds of thousands of "while collar men" in New York who now buy liquor would cease if arrest were certain.

Higher salaries for prohibition agents in order to raise the character of the men employed also were urged by Mr. Buckner, who said an agent with a family could not live on his $2,000 salary in New York city.

The witness said many agents who had quit were trying now to get back. "Why?" lashed out Senator Reed.

"One man told me he had a good business and wanted to get his job

back because he enjoyed the work," Buckner replied.

"Just frankly, now, isn't it because there is opportunity to make money?" asked Senator Reed.

The district attorney would not commit himself on that, altho he did tell of efforts to get evidence against agents. In one case, he said, a man who was paying for protection refused to tell to whom he had paid money, explaining that if he did he would be killed within 24 hours.

Doctor Hirsch removed the thread and was almost as astonished as Mrs. King at her discovery that her sight had returned with its removal.

SNOWBOUND IN AUTO.

Detroit, Mich. April 9, (UP) — None the worse for their experience, Mrs. A. R. Webster, 45, of Detroit, and a friend, Miss Gertrude Oatman, 32, a school teacher here, were at home after spending one full week cooped up in a snowbound automobile near West Branch, about 200 miles north of Detroit.

They were "entombed" on March 29 during the blizzard which swept the state before Easter and were not liberated until late Tuesday. Throughout the week they subsisted on groceries they had purchased for a farm house to which they were bound when trapped. Water was obtained by melting snow in a bottle held over the motor, which also supplied warmth.

UNIVERSITY AT GRANVILLE ADOPTS RULES

Students Placed on Honor Which Affects Eligibility to Hold Office.

Granville, O., April 9, (UP) —That the young men and women of our colleges are not all the jazz-wild, gin-drinking, and frivolous type that the novelists of the "Plastic Age" school are apt to portray is clearly evidenced by a self-imposed rule that the student government association of Denison university recently passed.

The rule, which makes a strict interpretation of honor, affects eligibility to hold students office in the university. It provides that no one guilty of "cribbing" or cheating in any manner shall be eligible for even a minor office under the student government, and is just one of the many manifestations of the high regard for honor in the school.

The student government association conducts an honor court, and its punishments range from a failure in the course in which the misdemeanor occurred, to dismissal from school.

YOUNGSTOWN ASKS WEATHER BUREAU THERE

Youngstown, O., April 9, (UP) — Establishment of a United States Weather bureau at Youngstown is believed near as the result of negotiations now under way between the government and officials of the Youngstown Sheet and Tube company.

The government's plan, as outlined in recent conferences between the weather bureau and company officials, is to use equipment now in the field engineer's office in private weather observation work. Instruments and records would be invaluable to the government should the bureau be established, company authorities believe.

T. C. TAYLOR DEAD.

Mrs. Frank T. Gearhart has received a telegram apprising her of the death of her brother-in-law, Thomas C. Taylor, at his home in Leavenworth, Kansas.

Mr. Taylor was a former resident of this county and his wife was Miss Allie Coffland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Coffland.

For a number of years Mr. Taylor held a clerkship in the department of justice, Washington D. C., and for the last fifteen years was chief clerk at the federal prison at Leavenworth.

He is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Mary Chandler, with whom he made his home.

Daniel Coffland, of Columbus, left Thursday for Leavenworth to attend the funeral.

FOUND AT LAST

I. H. McCarthy, a special investigator for the Department of Labor, during the World war, has finally located his only child after a hunt of 22 months that took him through four states in the Union. Mr. McCarthy claims that his daughter had been spirited away from him shortly after a California court had awarded the youngster to his custody. Jean Marie the baby, is two and one-half years of age.

MARION TALLEY WILL SING AT DENISON ON MAY 26.

Columbus, O., April 9, (UP)—An Ohio State university sorority is to present Marion Talley, youthful sensation of the current music season, in recital here next month.

Alumnae and active members of Alpha Gamma chapter of Kappa Alpha Theta hit up on this novel means of raising money instead of resorting to the time honored custom of a rummage sale or something akin thereto. While the alumnae are in active charge of the affair, undergraduate members are cooperating.

Miss Talley will sing here May 26, in Memorial hall, her only Ohio appearance this season in personal recital.

Mrs. W. B. Renick and Mrs. George Littleton spent the day in Columbus.

FARM BUREAU ACTIVITIES IN PICKAWAY

Indiana Men Study Methods in Vogue Here and are Favorably Impressed.

A committee representing livestock stock marketing interests of Indiana spent Saturday in Circleville as guests of Pickaway county Farm bureau making a study of marketing conditions in the county.

The committee consisted of Scott Meiks, livestock director of Indiana, president of Cincinnati Producers and director of The National Producers; J. M. Kirkpatrick, of Lafayette, county agents; Cecil Ray, Purdue university; Paul Wood, vice president and shipping manager of Jasper county.

The committee was accompanied by L. B. Palmer, president of Ohio Farm bureau; T. G. Kethner, livestock director of Ohio; Harry O'Brien, of Country Gentleman; L. L. Rummell, Ohio Farmer and Arthur Need, of Ohio Federation News.

The morning was spent at the local stockyards where Manager Briggs, Dinsmore and Leist were seen in full operation, grading and shipping livestock direct to packer and the terminal markets.

The party then visited the Farm bureau office where Mr. Rector, county president; Mr. Bragg, county agent, and Miss Brobst, executive secretary, explained the details and operation of the big cooperative marketing and extension program of Pickaway county.

Mr. Wood and Mr. Agster remained over to attend the regular meeting of the county executive committee in the afternoon. The success of cooperative marketing and extension work in Pickaway county is now attracting attention outside the state.

The extension work of Mr. Bragg, especially his market pig club, is getting favorable comment and much publicity in a national way thru farm and livestock presidents' reports.

The new vegetable marketing project of Pickaway county which was sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce and Farm bureau and to which Mr. Bragg has given considerable thought and time, is being watched and carefully studied by produce and vegetable marketing interests all over the country and bids fair to become one of the biggest and best vegetable marketing associations in the north.

Mr. Briggs has established the livestock marketing in this county on a sound and permanent basis, second to none. The Pickaway Grain company has long been accepted as a leading corporation grain marketing company.

The Pickaway Cream association is the largest and best managed cooperative cream association in Ohio.

Pickaway leads in cooperative purchasing of fertilizer.

Mr. Dinsmore of Van Wert, Ohio, just recently has been placed in charge of Auto insurance and Federal Farm loan, which assures these two branches competent and experienced management.

The office has recently placed a Dalton Multiplex calculating machine with its equipment making a complete up-to-date office equipment which under the management of Miss Ethel Brobst give competent office service to all lines of the work of the Farm bureau.

NEWLYWEDS

Are Held As Cops Probe Automobile Theft.

Cincinnati, April 7.—Prison bars separated Edward Ackley, 20, and his bride of one day, Mrs. Nellie Sharp Ackley, 19, at police headquarters today while police investigated the theft of the automobile of Carl E. Braun.

Braun, riding on a bus late yesterday, saw the bridal couple in his automobile. A police also was a passenger on the bus. Braun told the policeman that the automobile was his property. They alighted from the bus and stopped the couple.

Ackley and his bride said they were married a few hours before their arrest. The bridegroom insisted the automobile was loaned him by a friend. He admitted being paroled from the Mansfield reformatory after having served 18 months for the theft of clothes. He had 4 cents in his pocket when he was taken to police headquarters.

Braun's automobile was stolen yesterday.

WASHINGTON SPECIALS

Washington, April 7.—(UP.)—Carmi Thompson, newly appointed Philippine Island investigator, called at the white house today for the first of a series of conferences with President Coolidge preparatory to his departure for Manila on June 3.

No definite plans for the investigation had been formulated, Thompson said, and it was not certain whether the Islands of Guam and Samoa would be visited.

Thompson will be accompanied by a staff of federal experts.

Thompson plans to stop at Honolulu on his way to the Philippines, but he declared that this visit was merely social.

He has been asked by the president to complete his report and return to this country by the first of November so that whatever recommendations are made may be embodied in the president's message to congress for the second session.

STAY OF EXECUTION GRANTED

Cleveland, April 7.—(UP.)—As the girl who saved him from the electric chair went on trial for robbery here today, Albert Carelli, Pittsburgh, Pa., youth, alleged accomplice in a hold up here, was granted a stay of execution of his removal to Pittsburgh. Judge James B. Ruhl today gave John Orgill, attorney for Carelli until April 21, to get his extradition fight into the United States supreme court. Ohio's courts have upheld the extradition proceedings which will permit Carelli's removal to Pittsburgh where he is wanted on eight robbery charges.

Mrs. Josephine Laurie, the 19-year-old girl, whose testimony that she was dancing with Carelli the night prosecutors claimed he committed a murder in Pittsburgh, caused Governor Pinchot to pardon Carelli, was called "an innocent little country girl, the victim of circumstance," her attorney claimed as trial opened.

To Those Who Judge Quality by Price

The quality of Ford cars cannot be judged by the prices at which they are sold—because Ford prices are made possible by conditions that are absolutely unique in the automotive industry.

From mine to market the Ford car is the work of a single organization. The Company owns and operates the mines and forests that furnish the raw materials for its products. This material is carried over Ford transportation routes, fabricated in Ford mills, manufactured in Ford plants—and the finished product is sold to the public through Ford dealers.

The following statement, previously made in an advertising message, is repeated because of its significance to the public:

"If any other manufacturer endeavored to produce a car similar to the Ford, according to the high standards of quality in material and workmanship used by the Ford Motor Company and with the same tried and proved design, it would be impossible to offer it at anything like Ford prices. And it is well to note that even with less costly design they have not met Ford prices."

Pastel Print Ensemble;
Coat Is Edged With Fur

Showing a delightful ensemble of pastel print in modernistic design. The coat is lined with the printed silk of which the dress is made, and it is edged with bands of fur.

High Lights of Modes
of Interest to Women

A prominent actress arrived from Paris wearing a grayish beige, wool skirt with a red leather straight-line coat with raglan sleeves. Summer ermine appeared in a narrow collar and in a border down the side of the coat. A lipstick-red felt hat draped in the back, and grayish beige was repeated in her hose and shoes.
Martial and Armand accent the princess lines of a velvet bridal gown, with insets of lame and lace.
Lanvin shows a black lace fichu draped across the front in rounded line tied with flowing ends near the waistline in the back. The hemline is petaled. This is adhered to by every French house.
Broad stripes, too wide even for an awning, are woven into lovely tweed mixtures for coats at Palm Beach. These are worn above a turtle neck sweater outfit; the stripes in the sweater are horizontal.
Shantung is favored for sports wear as being practicable and of novelty interest.
The tailored dress in French openings is developed frequently in fine navy woolen; the severity of line and color is relieved by white collars and cuffs.
There are many soft dresses of crepe de chine presented in the collection, accompanied by coats in costume effect. Delicate shades in hosiery, pale blues, lavender and all shades of pink, are seen in the new hosiery.
White pique is much used for vestees and waistcoats.

Novelty Handkerchiefs
in Attractive Designs
The popularity of the novelty handkerchief continues and varied and interesting new designs are being shown in the spring assortments. Linens, of course, are the best medium to consider from a style aspect. From Ireland come the daintiest and sheerest of handkerchiefs. Fine hand-embroidered corners, hand-rolled hems and hemstitching are the outstanding features of the white ones. Printed linens have a touch of colored embroidery, but only a suggestion. Artistic colored designs are seen in the French importations. These have white or solid centers with contrasting colors in the borders. All-over effects are also good, especially when they include the brilliant colors in a border design. Swiss handkerchiefs made of net, voile and crepe de chine are more decorative than useful, as is suggested both in their size and sheerness.

Gloves Are Gay
Accessories to costumes are gay, but none are gayer than the gloves. There are red gloves with a little scallop at the top, and one red and one gray with stitching in the two-tones effect. Green with tan; red with black; blue with tangerine; and gray with tangerine are other color combinations which are proving popular. We are told on every hand that it is to be a season of color, and here are the gloves to prove it. Worn with a dark fur coat, they will lend a note of gaiety to the most somber costume.

Dance Hats
Reports from here and there lend ever more interest to the evening turban for restraining unruly tresses. It is made on the lines of an aviation cap, and in one instance is described as being of black hatter-plush, laid in a solid band of plait which circle the hat, extend down over the ears, and are finished with a pear and rhinestone pin worn at the front.

All in Black
Brilliant satins that shine like the surface of a lake, soft velvets, hard failles, severe taffeta, soft crepes, all in black, are now to be seen. Black is coming in again, especially for afternoon wear, in consequence of the stylish effects that can be obtained with it.

GOD ARE HIS MESSENGERS

Rev. Charles Glass Delivering Forceful Sermons at the Calvary Church.

"For whosoever shall do the will of my Father which is in heaven, the same is my brother, and sister and mother." Matt. 12:50.

The plain and fearless manner in which the Lord Jesus declared the truth, frequently brought to Him bitter opposition. The man of God is His messenger and we are not to present our message, to present our ideas, but we are here as God's messengers.

Jesus said, "Whom do men say that I am?" And he received different answers, as Moses, Elias or one of the prophets, then He asked them, "Who do you say I am?" Peter spoke up with face aglow and heart rejoicing and said, "Thou art Jesus the Son of God." The time has come when people must identify themselves, when there must be a willingness to show our colors.

Jesus, pointing in the direction of His followers said, "Behold my mother and Mr. Brethren, for whosoever shall do the will of My Father which is in heaven, the same is my brother and sister, and mother." Let me give you two reasons why we should earnestly and anxiously seek to know and do the will of God.

First of all because of the danger of failing to do His will. If there had been no danger of our failing to do God's will I don't think Jesus would have felt the necessity of uttering these words. How little time we take to ask the question: "Is this God's Will? Can I participate in this and yet have the consciousness that I am doing God's will? Is His will being carried out in my life? Oh, that is a question that should be considered seriously.

The service Friday night will be in behalf of the Sunday school and E. L. C. E. subject: "Fun, Contentment, Their Difference." This is a message that should be heard by the young people especially those who want to have a life of real contentment. Two weeks of these meetings have almost come to a close and many of you have not yet heard the wonderful messages in sermon and song that Rev. and Mrs. Glass have been bringing. If you are among that number make this the night when you begin and we feel confident when you have once heard them you will want to come often.

Cloth From Pineapples

In France a new fabric that promises to become popular is made from pineapple fiber. It looks like a mixture of cambric and silk. The idea is not essentially new as the natives of Africa have long made their fish nets from the fiber. The fiber does not disintegrate as quickly as cotton material. While the African product is very crude, the skilled process in France makes a superfine cloth. It is said.

All or Nothing

A colored attorney was representing a fellow colored client before Judge Dan V. White in municipal court.

"You may advise your client as to his constitutional right of telling his story or keeping quiet," said the judge to the lawyer.

"Yes sir. You can tell the judge the whole truth and nothing but the truth, or you can keep quiet," was the advice.—Indianapolis News.

Natives Get Voice

For the first time natives of West Africa are now sharing in their government. The legislative council will consist of fifteen official and fourteen unofficial members, besides the governor, who is president. The unofficial members will be the natives. The chiefs of the tribes will in effect name the representatives.

IN MEMORIAM

Editor Union-Herald:— Clarence B. Seymour, better known as "Slick" Seymour, a former resident of Pickaway county, who was employed by the Ohio Poultry Produce Corporative association at Wauseon, Ohio, was instantly killed April 1, when he was struck by a falling brick wall at Ridgeville Corners.

Mr. Seymour after making his morning trip had driven up in front of the business house and had just alighted on the sidewalk and was just in the act of unloading his produce when the sixty foot brick wall gave way falling into the street crushing him beneath the debris, breaking his neck causing instant death.

Clarence Luther Seymour, son of Wesley and Hattie Seymour, was born October 22, 1885, and departed this life April 1, 1926, aged 40 years, five months and nine days. He was united in marriage to Della Redfield August 28, 1914; three children were born to this union; Eloise, Bernice and Riffie.

In 1906 he was happily converted and joined the U. B. church near Circleville. He was a kind and loving father and husband, always looking after the joy and comfort of his family and others. He was never known to shirk a duty and his cheerful smile will be missed by all who knew him. He leaves to mourn his departure, his wife, two daughters, one son, mother, three sisters and a host of friends. His father, three brothers and one sister preceded him in death.

B. R. Calvert, William Anderson and Jacob Leist motored thru Saturday night and attended the funeral Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Methodist church in Liberty Center. The body was placed in the mausoleum in Young's cemetery.

URNS WORRY OVER TO "OTHER FELLOW"

Probably the oldest active newspaper editor and publisher in the United States is C. S. Parker of Arlington, Mass., publisher of the Arlington Advocate and Lexington Minute Man. He was born April 11, 1839. He is "on the job" every day, and his writing is like copper plate. Another unusual thing about Mr. Parker is that he belongs to a line which has lived continuously in Middlesex county, Mass., since 1635, says National Republic.

Seventy-one years ago Mr. Parker entered the office of the Woburn Journal as an apprentice. In 1861 he bought an interest in the Woburn Budget, but left his paper in the care of a brother who had returned from the Civil war that he might himself enlist in the Union army.

In 1874 Mr. Parker returned to the Arlington Advocate and for more than forty years has made a success of this paper. Mr. Parker gives this explanation of his longevity:

"Hard work don't kill. My motto has been, one day at a time; my purpose so far as possible, to let the other fellow do the worrying." Not a bad prescription, at all.

Jefferson Takes High
Rank Among Realtors

Thomas Jefferson, among other things, was a clever realtor. If he lived in these days there would be few, if any, who would be rated higher than the famous Virginian. His most outstanding deal, of course, was the purchase of the entire West at the rate of four cents an acre. For a million square miles of territory, which has proved to be the richest mineral land in the world and among the most fertile of soil, he paid $11,250,000 in cash and assumed all claims on the land, the payment of which with interest and other charges brought the total price to $27,267,622. This land, acquired in 1803 from France, now comprises the thirteen states of Louisiana, Missouri, Arkansas, Iowa, Minnesota, North and South Dakota, Nebraska and Oklahoma, and the greater part of Kansas, Colorado, Wyoming and Montana, about five times the area of continental France.

The Reason

Rev. J. D. Morrison of Camden, discussing the Baptist convention's resolution in favor of penalizing non voters, said the other day:

"The typical nonvoter, when you reprove him, retorts with some complaint and utterly absurd reason for his nonvoting course.

"It reminds me of the man who complained to his wife:

"A year ago you said our marriage was made in heaven, yet now you order me around something awful."

"His wife answered calmly: 'Order is heaven's first law.'"

America's Bus Routes

There are now more than 7,800 motor bus routes in America, being operated by 5,500 motor bus companies. The greatest bus-using region is the section north of the Ohio river and east of the Mississippi, where 2,700 bus companies operate 3,000 routes.

Guessed Wrong on Edison

A well-known explorer tells the story that he asked an Eskimo and later a South Sea Islander, who was President of the United States. Both answered "Edison."

AMUSEMENTS

"The Man Who Found Himself" the Paramount picture starring Thomas Meighan at the Met theater, is a story of a son of a small town banker who in order to save his younger "respectable" brother from a term in Sing Sing, gives himself up as the guilty party after a bank robbery.

The situation is this: Ralph Morgan, in the role of Edwin Macauley Jr., is sick and tired of hearing his wife ask him why it is he can't make a whole lot of money in a hurry so she can have some of the fine things of life. So he decides to take a "flyer" in Wall street.

The scheme falls thru, as most get-rich schemes usually do, and the boy is forced to borrow some forty-odd thousand dollars from the bank to "cover up" and besides that goes to rival banker to borrow money to replace in the vaults to keep his own accounts straight.

Now everything might have gone along more or less smoothly if the other man hadn't seen in this situation a chance to get rid of a dangerous business rival. He notifies the bank examiners with the above result.

Not satisfied with having shipped Meighan "up the river," the banker, Lon Morris, played by Frank Morgan (Ralph's brother in real life), who is also angling for the hand of Tom's sweetheart Nort Brooks, Virginia Valli tells the girl that Tom took the money to spend on another woman.

In Sing Sing, Tom soon wins the confidence of the warden and is made a trusty. Meanwhile Lon Morris works hard to win Nora and finally persuades her to marry him so her invalid sister may be comfortable.

Tom's father dies of grief, and soon after this the star gets another shock by reading of his girl's approaching wedding. He escapes from prison and with the help of two former convicts plans a clever trap for Morris.

To relate the scenes that follow would be only spoiling an evening of perfect entertainment. If you miss this one, you miss the greatest picture Tom Meighan ever made. And that's something!

Alfred E. Green, who directed Tom in "Back Home and Broke," "Pied Piper Malone," etc., made this one. Tom Geraghty wrote the screen play from an original story by Booth Tarkington, written especially for Mr. Meighan.

SOCIAL CALENDAR

The regular monthly meeting of the Ladies' society of Trinity Lutheran congregation was held Wednesday afternoon, April 7, in the social room of the church. The missionary paper for the month, "The Salzbergers," was read by Mrs. Wallace Crist and discussion of same by Mrs. Lewis Hohenstine. Fifty-nine members responded to the roll call. Business hour followed. During the social hour, the members were favored with vocal solos by Mrs. George Himrod, Mrs. James Moffit and Miss Lucile Howard. A delicious lunch consisting of ice cream, cake and coffee was served by the April committee.

Mrs. Charles Hall entertained her Thimble club Thursday afternoon at her home on Watt street.

The Sunshine class of the Methodist Episcopal church, met at the home of Miss Garnet Van Buskirk, of East Union street, on Tuesday evening, April 6, with Miss Anna Anderson as their leader. At the beginning of the meeting, the business was transacted which included the reading of the minutes of the last meeting, roll call payment of dues, and various other things. After the business meeting a piano solo was rendered by Ruth Fosnaugh. After this the meeting adjourned and refreshments consisting of sandwiches, pickles, cake and cocoa were served by Hermia Laughlin and Garnet Van Buskirk. The rest of the evening was spent in games and music.

A MINUTE A DAYMakes Milking Pay, Says Lar-rowe Institute of Animal Economics.

One minute per cow per day spent in weighing out the feed consumed and milk produced by each animal, would show the dairyman which of his cows are really working for him and which are loafing on the job, according to the Lar-rowe Institute of Animal Economics. Thirty-one seconds per milking is all the time the farmer needs to keep tab on the performance of each of the cows in his herd.

"The majority of dairymen who do not keep records of the feed consumption or milk production of the cows, are working under the delusion that the keeping of such records would take up more time than they could well afford to spare," according to the Institute. "They are wrong. Actual timing under practical conditions conducted by the Institute, shows that it takes only eleven seconds more per cow for each of two feedings to weigh out the exact feed, than it takes where the feed is not weighed. To weigh and record the milk from each cow was found to take only twenty seconds more per milking than it takes to just dump the milk over the cooler, or forty seconds for the two milkings. In all, no more than sixty-two seconds, or about a minute, is required to have a complete record of each cow's feed consumption and milk production. If that extra minute devoted to keeping records for say twenty cows, should reveal that one of them was a typical waster—in capable of producing milk in profitable quantities—the dairyman would not only be saved the countless hours devoted to its feeding and care, but he would find that he was better off at the end of the year with the remaining nineteen cows than he was with the original twenty.

"Roughly speaking, there are only three distinct types of cows. The Susies, who are good lookers, but simply haven't the capacity when it comes to the milk pail. All feeds they get above the amount required to produce their limited quantities of milk and keep them in condition, are wasted. The Betties are the thin, emaciated creatures who look as though they were ready to lie down and quit, but which have an inherited ability to produce milk that will often lead them to take it right off their own backs. Generally these are sadly underfed, so that they are using only a portion of their capacity. Then there are the Dollies—the army of waster cows that simply can't produce milk profitably. They eat and eat and their owners have neither beef nor milk to show for it. They are overdue at the butchers's. Such cows are in every herd where the dairyman does not feed in accordance with milk capacity and production. Keeping feed and milk records will show the dairyman how to profit from the Susies, cash in fully on the Betties, and how to avoid losses on the Dollies.

No Standpatter

Representative Frear, who refuses to censure England for restricting rubber, was the subject of an anecdote at a Washington tea.

"Oh, Frear!" said another representative. "Frear's always been obstinate. He'll never do what you tell him to."

"Why, once, when Frear was a boy, a crowd of bigger boys threw him overboard and told him to sink or swim."

"Which did he do?" said a pretty girl.

"He did neither, of course," said the representative. "He turned over on his back and floated."—Detroit Free Press.

They have been developed from crossing native Siberian rams with ewes of the Shropshire and Rambouillet breeds.

CANTON POLICE CHIEF GETS HIS PLACE BACK

Canton, April 7.—S. A. Lengel, removed as chief of police by Mayor S. M. Swarts on Feb. 23, has been reinstated by the civil service commission. The decision of the commission will be formally announced tomorrow.
Lengel was charged with inefficiency, incompetency and neglect of duty. He appealed to the civil service commission and his hearing lasted two weeks, during which time 72 persons testified. The only direct testimony offered at the hearing against the chief was that he used profanity. Lengel probably will resume his duties Saturday.

MRS. MINSHALL DIES SUDDENLY

Death Occurred This Morning at City Hospital—Had Been Ill Short Time.

The countless friends of Mrs. Addison P. Minshall, wife of the former mayor of the city, were shocked at the announcement of her death which occurred this morning at the city hospital. Mrs. Minshall had been ill but a short time and was taken to the hospital a few days ago. She was one of Chillicothe's most beloved women and her friends were widespread.

Edith Doty Minshall was born June 27, 1879, the daughter of Theodore and Martha Doty, of Portsmouth. She was married to Addison P. Minshall April 30, 1901. She was a loyal member of St. Paul's Episcopal church. She leaves to mourn their loss, her husband, one daughter Julia, father, Theodore Doty, of Portsmouth; three brothers, Frank and Lucien Doty, of Portsmouth; Henry Doty, of Ironton; one sister, Mrs. J. I. Hudson, of Columbus.

The funeral services will be held from the residence at 2:30 o'clock Friday afternoon.—Chillicothe News-Advertiser.

x HARTMAN THEATER. x
x x x x x x x x

It is no exaggeration to say that Robert B. Mantell, dean of Shakespearean and classic actors on this continent, will hold a Shakespearean festival at the Hartman theater, Columbus, next week, which will also be his farewell engagement in Columbus, as he is making his final theatrical tour this season. "King Lear," "Macbeth" and "Hamlet," three widely different and great tragedies, and "As You Like It" and "The Merchant of Venice," two charming comedies, will be presented. And, to add a very special note of novelty "Hamlet" will be given in two different ways on Tuesday evening, April 13, in traditional manner—that is, with costumes and scenic effects always identified with the play and on Friday night, April 16, in modern manner—that is, with the dress and scenic background of 1926.

Mr. Mantell, by the way, was the first to give this tragedy in modern dress on this side of the Atlantic. At first he refused, but finally yielded to the public desire to see the play, that way, and gave it first in St. Louis, where it was received with such enthusiasm that he has since repeated it many times, and always to very large audiences. In the Pacific Coast cities of the United States also in Canada, it was warmly welcomed. How will Columbus like it?

"Merchant of Venice," one of the finest of all Shakespearean tragedies, will be the bill for the opening performance on Monday evening, also for Saturday matinee. "As You Like It" should prove a charming afternoon's entertainment for the ladies on Wednesday, with beautiful Genevieve Hamper as "Rosalind."
"Richelieu" is a fascinating character, with his wonderful knowledge of men, his love of power and his remarkable assumption of kingly right. Saturday afternoon "The Merchant of Venice" with the combination of comedy and tragedy, as exemplified by "Portia" and "Shylock" will be played, as it is always a favorite with the students, young and old. "Macbeth," that Scotch historical tragedy, will bring the engagement to a close—and a fitting one, since Robert Bruce Mantell was born in Scotland.
Genevieve Hamper, who is co-star with Mr. Mantell, will also have an opportunity to play many different parts during the week. She is a favorite with theatergoers by reason of her beauty and talents. The entire supporting company is composed of players who have made a special study of Shakespearean drama and the classics. Each play will have its own proper and adequate setting and costuming.

RUPTURE EXPERT HERE

Seeley Co.'s truss expert from Chicago will personally be at the Mithoff Hotel, and will remain in Lancaster Wednesday only, April 14. Mr. Seeley says: "The Spermatic Shield will not only retain any case of rupture perfectly, but contracts the opening in 10 days on the average case. Being a vast advancement over all former methods—exemplifying instantaneous effects immediately appreciable and withstanding any strain or position no matter the size or location. Large or difficult cases, or incisional ruptures (following operations) specially solicited. This instrument received the only award in England and in Spain, producing results without surgery, injections, medical treatments or prescriptions." Warning — All Cases should be cautioned against the use of any elastic or web truss with understraps, as same rest where the lump is and not where the opening is, producing complications necessitating surgical operations. Mr. Seeley has documents from the United States inspection. Our representative will be glad to demonstrate without charge or fit them if desired. Incentive is the power behind action. It is the impulse that causes the brain to command the muscles. The proper incentive is all any man needs to do his best or his worst. Remove the incentive, and the power stops. Where there is incentive, there is also gain. It may be in the form of health, wealth or satisfaction; but in the normal, healthful, happy person the incentive is usually wealth.

It is this incentive that guides so many people to use the popular loan service provided by the City Loan. And it matters not whether person the incentive is usually buy something new or protect what they already have—they gain by using the service.

YOUNG MAN DROWNED IN PAINT CREEK

Suspension Bridge on Which Clifford George Was Crossing Gave Way.

Clifford George, aged seventeen, lost his life in the north fork of Paint creek, near New Holland, Thursday evening, when the suspension bridge on which he was crossing gave way, throwing him into the water.

The youth was caught in the wires of the bridge and was unable to extricate himself. His body has not been recovered. Dragging of the creek was begun this morning.

The boy was returning from across the creek where he had been on an errand, mailing a letter when he was drowned. Altho his father was near the bridge when it went down, he was unable to render his son assistance, as he could not swim.

The boy was a son of Mr. and Mrs. John George, who occupy the farm of Fred J. Ebert, just south of the village. His mother is a patient in Mt. Carmel hospital Columbus, and the lad was a senior in the high school. Besides his parents, he is survived by several brothers and sisters.

COUPLE ENJOYS MARRIED LIFE HALF CENTURY

Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Gessley Celebrate Golden Anniversary on Friday.

Wedded fifty years ago in a little church, St. Paul's, Madison township, Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Gessley today at their home on East Franklin street celebrated the golden anniversary. When Rudolph Gessley and Emma Victoria Marburger were made one, there was not an automobile in the land, the telephone had just been invented and was considered only the whim of an enthusiastic and visionary dreamer.

The couple at that time knew nothing of electricity or the airplane, but they seemed to have gotten nicely and are wonderfully well preserved. It was while on a visit to his aunt, Mrs. Jacob Bowers, at East Ringgold, that they met the first time. Down thru the half century they have traveled in fair weather and foul, always making a daughter the best of everything.

Mr. Gessley was born in New York city in 1853 and his wife was born near East Ringgold in 1865, a daughter of John and Ellen Marburger. The home was beautifully decorated for the occasion, the color scheme being white and yellow. Snapdragons, white and yellow Calla lilies and roses were used.

Mr. Gessley has been the secretary of the local lodge of Elks for a number of years and the lodge presented him with a purse of gold. Three golden cakes helped to make up the dinner which was served at noon.

Covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. Orrin L. Gessley and children, Rudolph II, and Katharine Gessley, of this city; Mr. and Mrs. J. O. L. Friece and sons, Henry and Richard, of Crafton, Pennsylvania, and Bauldin Becher, of this city, children and grandchildren of Mr. and Mrs. Gessley; Mrs. Herbert Tranter, Mrs. Marcus Wills and Mrs. John R. Lehman of Dayton; Dr. and Mrs. T. Scott Sims and son, Lawrence and daughter, Miss Mary Grace, of Savannah, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. John Trone, of East Ringgold; Mrs. Robert Codner, of Groveport; Mrs. John Marburger and Alva Marburger, of Bremen, Indiana, brothers and sisters of Mrs. Gessley.

MODIFICATION ESPOUSED BY BUCKNER

BOW TO CLAMOR OF WETS OR EXPEND GREAT SUMS

Claims He Could Enforce Prohibition If Given the Necessary Machinery and If Congress Would Provide For Police Court Instead of Jury Trials For Petty Offenders.

back because he enjoyed the work," Buckner replied.

"Just frankly, now, isn't it because there is opportunity to make money?" asked Senator Reed.

The district attorney would not commit himself on that, altho he did tell of efforts to get evidence against agents. In one case, he said, a man who was paying for protection refused to tell to whom he had paid money, explaining that if he did he would be killed within 24 hours.

Liberalization of the Volstead act as a means of checking crime and as an incentive for New York state to adopt dry laws of its own was urged Thursday before a senate committee at the fourth day's presentation of the wet side of the prohibition issue at Washington.

Winding up two days of testimony, U. S. District Attorney Buckner, of New York City proposed modification as an inducement for New York state to reenact an enabling act which would permit its police to cooperate with the federal agencies in enforcing the law.

Modification to check the spread of crime, insanity and the sale of poisonous liquor was advocated in statements filed with the committee by George E. Brennan, Democratic national committeeman from Illinois, and Anton J. Cermak, heading a special committee from Cook county and Chicago.

Altho both came here from Chicago to appear in person, neither Mr. Brennan, who is the Democratic candidate for senator from Illinois, nor Mr. Cermak took the stand, submitting instead written statements and a long list of statistics. These were offered in the record by Julian Codman of Boston, counsel for the wets.

District Attorney Buckner, the only witness heard at the two hour session expressed the view that he could enforce prohibition if given the necessary machinery and if congress would provide for police court instead of jury trials for "petty" offenders.

If jury trials are required Mr. Buckner said 85 additional district judges are needed for his district, with accompanying district attorneys, clerks, marshals, stenographers and a total enforcement force at 1500 dry agents.

Machinery for the whole state of New York, he estimated, would cost $75,000,000 annually if all trials were by juries and $8,000,000 if "petty offenders" were tried by commissioners without juries. He advocated the latter method of trial, declaring that this would greatly facilitate the disposition of cases.

Protesting against the proposal that the dry law should pay its own enforcement, Mr. Buckner said this would be a bad situation; that the treasury should collect revenue and the department of justice enforce the laws.

Jail sentences rather than fines were urged by the district attorney as the most effective way of bringing about observance of the prohibition laws. He asserted that hundreds of thousands of "while collar men" in New York who now buy liquor would cease if arrest were certain.

Higher salaries for prohibition agents in order to raise the character of the men employed also were urged by Mr. Buckner, who said an agent with a family could not live on his $2,000 salary in New York city.

The witness said many agents who had quit were trying now to get back. "Why?" lashed out Senator Reed.

"One man told me he had a good business and wanted to get his job

Doctor Hirsch removed the thread and was almost as astonished as Mrs. King at her discovery that her sight had returned with its removal.

SNOWBOUND IN AUTO.

Detroit, Mich. April 9, (UP)—None the worse for their experience, Mrs. A. R. Webster, 45, of Detroit, and a friend, Miss Gertrude Oatman, 32, a school teacher here, were at home after spending one full week cooped up in a snowbound automobile near West Branch, about 200 miles north of Detroit.

They were "entombed" on March 29 during the blizzard which swept the state before Easter and were not liberated until late Tuesday. Throughout the week they subsisted on groceries they had purchased for a farm house to which they were bound when trapped. Water was obtained by melting snow in a bottle held over the motor, which also supplied warmth.

UNIVERSITY AT GRANVILLE ADOPTS RULES

Students Placed on Honor Which Affects Eligibility to Hold Office.

Granville, O., April 9, (UP)—That the young men and women of our colleges are not all the jazz-wild, gin-drinking, and frivolous type that the novelists of the "Plastic Age" school are apt to portray is clearly evidenced by a self-imposed rule that the student government association of Denison university recently passed.

The rule, which makes a strict interpretation of honor, affects eligibility to hold students office in the university. It provides that no one guilty of "cribbing" or cheating in any manner shall be eligible for even a minor office under the student government, and is just one of the many manifestations of the high regard for honor in the school.

The student government association conducts an honor court, and its punishments range from a failure in the course in which the misdemeanor occurred, to dismissal from school.

YOUNGSTOWN ASKS WEATHER BUREAU THERE

Youngstown, O., April 9, (UP)—Establishment of a United States weather bureau at Youngstown is believed near as the result of negotiations now under way between the government and officials of the Youngstown Sheet and Tube company.

The government's plan, as outlined in recent conferences between the weather bureau and company officials, is to use equipment now in the field engineer's office in private weather observation work. Instruments and records would be invaluable to the government should the bureau be established, company authorities believe.

FARM BUREAU ACTIVITIES IN PICKAWAY

Indiana Men Study Methods in Vogue Here and are Favorably Impressed.

A committee representing livestock stock marketing interests of Indiana spent Saturday in Circleville as guests of Pickaway county Farm bureau making a study of marketing conditions in the county.

The committee consisted of Scott Meiks, livestock director of Indiana, president of Cincinnati Producers and director of The National Producers; J. M. Kirkpatrick, of Lafayette and H. S. Agster, of Rennsstar, county agents; Cecil Ray, Purdue university; Paul Wood, vice president and shipping manager of Jasper county.

The committee was accompanied by L. B. Palmer, president of Ohio Farm bureau; T. G. Ketner, livestock director of Ohio; Harry O'Brien, of Country Gentleman; L. L. Rummell, Ohio Farmer and Arthur Need, of Ohio Federation News.

The morning was spent at the local stockyards where Manager Briggs, Dinsmore and Leist were seen in full operation, grading and shipping livestock direct to packer and the terminal markets.

The party then visited the Farm bureau office where Mr. Rector, county president; Mr. Bragg, county agent, and Miss Brobst, executive secretary, explained the details and operation of the big cooperative marketing and extension program of Pickaway county.

Mr. Wood and Mr. Agster remained over to attend the regular meeting of the county executive committee in the afternoon. The success of cooperative marketing and extension work in Pickaway county is now attracting attention outside the state.

The extension work of Mr. Bragg, especially his market pig club, is getting favorable comment and much publicity in a national way thru farm and livestock presidents' reports.

The new vegetable marketing project of Pickaway county which was sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce and Farm bureau and to which Mr. Bragg has given considerable thought and time, is being watched and carefully studied by produce and vegetable marketing interests all over the country and bids fair to become one of the biggest and best vegetable marketing associations in the north.

Mr. Briggs has established the livestock marketing in this county on a sound and permanent basis, second to none. The Pickaway Grain company has long been accepted as a leading corporation grain marketing company.

The Pickaway Cream association is the largest and best managed cooperative cream association in Ohio.

Pickaway leads in cooperative purchasing of fertilizer.

Mr. Dinsmore of Van Wert, Ohio, just recently has been placed in charge of Auto insurance and Federal Farm loan, which assures these two branches competent and experienced management.

The office has recently placed a Dalton Multiplex calculating machine with its equipment making a complete up-to-date office equipment which under the management of Miss Ethel Brobst give competent office service to all lines of the work of the Farm bureau.

NEWLYWEDS

Are Held As Cops Probe Automobile Theft.

Cincinnati, April 7.—Prison bars separated Edward Ackley, 20, and his bride of one day, Mrs. Nellie Sharp Ackley, 19, at police headquarters today while police investigated the theft of the automobile of Carl E. Braun.

Braun, riding on a bus late yesterday, saw the bridal couple in his automobile. A police also was a passenger on the bus. Braun told the policeman that the automobile was his property. They alighted from the bus and stopped the couple.

Ackley and his bride said they were married a few hours before their arrest. The bridegroom insisted the automobile was loaned him by a friend. He admitted being paroled from the Mansfield reformatory after having served 18 months for the theft of clothes. He had 4 cents in his pocket when he was taken to police headquarters.

Braun's automobile was stolen yesterday.

WASHINGTON SPECIALS

Washington, April 7.—(UP.)—Carmi Thompson, newly appointed Philippine Island investigator, called at the white house today for the first of a series of conferences with President Coolidge preparatory to his departure for Manila on June 3.

No definite plans for the investigation had been formulated, Thompson said, and it was not certain whether the Islands of Guam and Samoa would be visited.

Thompson will be accompanied by a staff of federal experts.

Thompson plans to stop at Honolulu on his way to the Philippines, but he declared that this visit was merely social.

He has been asked by the president to complete his report and return to this country by the first of November so that whatever recommendations are made may be embodied in the president's message to congress for the second session.

STAY OF EXECUTION GRANTED

Cleveland, April 7.—(UP.)—As the girl who saved him from the electric chair went on trial for robbery here today, Albert Carelli, Pittsburgh, Pa., youth, alleged accomplice in a hold up here, was granted a stay of execution of his removal to Pittsburgh. Judge James B. Ruhl today gave John Orgill, attorney for Carelli until April 21, to get his extradition fight into the United States supreme court. Ohio's courts have upheld the extradition proceedings which will permit Carelli's removal to Pittsburgh where he is wanted on eight robbery charges.

Mrs. Josephine Laurie, the 19-year-old girl, whose testimony that she was dancing with Carelli the night prosecutors claimed he committed a murder in Pittsburgh, caused Governor Pinchot to pardon Carelli, was called "an innocent little country girl, the victim of circumstance," her attorney claimed as trial opened.

To Those Who Judge Quality by Price

The quality of Ford cars cannot be judged by the prices at which they are sold—because Ford prices are made possible by conditions that are absolutely unique in the automotive industry.

From mine to market the Ford car is the work of a single organization. The Company owns and operates the mines and forests that furnish the raw materials for its products. This material is carried over Ford transportation routes, fabricated in Ford mills, manufactured in Ford plants—and the finished product is sold to the public through Ford dealers.

The following statement, previously made in an advertising message, is repeated because of its significance to the public:

"If any other manufacturer endeavored to produce a car similar to the Ford, according to the high standards of quality in material and workmanship used by the Ford Motor Company and with the same tried and proved design, it would be impossible to offer it at anything like Ford prices. And it is well to note that even with less costly design they have not met Ford prices."

Pastel Print Ensemble;
Coat Is Edged With Fur

Showing a delightful ensemble of pastel print in modernistic design. The coat is lined with the printed silk of which the dress is made, and it is edged with bands of fur.

High Lights of Modes
of Interest to Women

A prominent actress arrived from Paris wearing a grayish beige wool skirt with a red leather straight-line coat with raglan sleeves. Summer ermine appeared in a narrow collar and in a border down the side of the coat. A lipstick-red felt hat draped in the back, and grayish beige was repeated in her hose and shoes.
Martial and Armand accent the princess lines of a velvet bridal gown, with insets of lame and lace.
Lanvin shows a black lace fichu draped across the front in rounded line tied with flowing ends near the waistline in the back. The hemline is petaled. This is adhered to by every French house.

Broad stripes, too wide even for an awning, are woven into lovely tweed mixtures for coats at Palm Beach. These are worn above a turtle neck sweater outfit; the stripes in the sweater are horizontal.

Shantung is favored for sports wear as being practicable and of novelty interest.

The tailored dress in French openings is developed frequently in fine navy woolen; the severity of line and color is relieved by white collars and cuffs.

There are many soft dresses of crepe de chine presented in the collection, accompanied by coats in costume effect.

Delicate shades in hosiery, pale blues, lavender and all shades of pink, are seen in the new hosiery.

White pique is much used for vests and waistcoats.

Novelty Handkerchiefs
in Attractive Designs

The popularity of the novelty handkerchief continues and varied and interesting new designs are being shown in the spring assortments. Linens, of course, are the best medium to consider from a style aspect. From Ireland come the daintiest and sheerest of handkerchiefs. Fine hand-embroidered corners, hand-rolled hems and hemstitching are the outstanding features of the white ones. Printed linens have a touch of colored embroidery, but only a suggestion. Artistic colored designs are seen in the French importations. These have white or solid centers with contrasting colors in the borders. All-over effects are also good, especially when they include the brilliant colors in a border design. Swiss handkerchiefs made of net, voile and crepe de chine are more decorative than useful, as is suggested both in their size and sheerness.

Gloves Are Gay

Accessories to costumes are gay, but none are gayer than the gloves. There are red gloves with a little scallop at the top, and one red and one gray with stitching in the two-tone effect. Green with tan; red with black; blue with tangerine, and gray with tangerine are other color combinations which are proving popular. We are told on every hand that it is to be a season of color, and here are the gloves to prove it. Worn with a dark fur coat, they will lend a note of gaiety to the most somber costume.

Dance Hats

Reports from here and there lend ever more interest to the evening turban for restraining unruly tresses. It is made on the lines of an aviator cap, and in one instance is described as being of black batter-plush, laid in a solid band of plait which circle the hat, extend down over the ears, and are finished with a pearl and rhinestone pin worn at the front.

All in Black

Brilliant satins that shine like the surface of a lake, soft velvets, hard failies, severe taffeta, soft crepes, all in black, are now to be seen. Black is coming in again, especially for afternoon wear, in consequence of the stylish effects that can be obtained with it.

Inconsiderate Barber

MINISTERS OF GOD ARE HIS MESSENGERS

Rev. Charles Glass Delivering Forceful Sermons at the Calvary Church.

"For whosoever shall do the will of my Father which is in heaven, the same is my brother, and sister and mother." Matt. 12:50.

The plain and fearless manner in which the Lord Jesus declared the truth, frequently brought to Him bitter opposition. The man of God is His messenger and we are not to present our message, to present our ideas, but we are here as God's messengers.

Jesus said, "Whom do men say that I am?" And he received different answers, as Moses, Elias or one of the prophets, then He asked them, "Who do you say I am?" Peter spoke up with face aglow and heart rejoicing and said, "Thou art Jesus the Son of God." The time has come when people must identify themselves, when there must be a willingness to show our colors.

Jesus, pointing in the direction of His followers said, "Behold my mother and Mr. Brethren, for whosoever shall do the will of My Father which is in heaven, the same is my brother and sister, and mother." Let me give you two reasons why we should earnestly and anxiously seek to know and do the will of God.

First of all because of the danger of failing to do His will. If there had been no danger of our failing to do God's will I don't think Jesus would have felt the necessity of uttering these words. How little time we take to ask the question; "Is this God's Will? Can I participate in this and yet have the consciousness that I am doing God's will? Is His will being carried out in my life? Oh, that is a question that should be considered seriously.

The service Friday night will be in behalf of the Sunday school and E. L. C. E. subject; "Fun, Contentment, Their Difference." This is a message that should be heard by the young people especially those who want to have a life of real contentment. Two weeks of these meetings have almost come to a close and many of you have not yet heard the wonderful messages in sermon and song that Rev. and Mrs. Glass have been bringing. If you are among that number make this the night when you begin and we feel confident when you have once heard them you will want to come often.

Cloth From Pineapples

In France a new fabric that promises to become popular is made from pineapple fiber. It looks like a mixture of cambric and silk. The idea is not essentially new as the natives of Africa have long made their fish nets from the fiber. The fiber does not disintegrate as quickly as cotton material. While the African product is very crude, the skilled process in France makes a superfine cloth. It is said.

All or Nothing

A colored attorney was representing a fellow colored client before Judge Dan V. White in municipal court. "You may advise your client as to his constitutional right of telling his story or keeping quiet," said the judge to the lawyer. "Yes sir. You can tell the judge the whole truth and nothing but the truth, or you can keep quiet," was the advice.—Indianapolis News.

Natives Get Voice

For the first time natives of West Africa are now sharing in their government. The legislative council will consist of fifteen official and fourteen unofficial members, besides the governor, who is president. The chiefs of the tribes will in effect name the representatives.

IN MEMORIAM

Editor Union-Herald:— Clarence L. Seymour, better known as "Slick" Seymour, a former resident of Pickaway county, who was employed by the Ohio Poultry Produce Corporation association at Wauseon, Ohio, was instantly killed April 1, when he was struck by a falling brick wall at Ridgeville Corners.

Mr. Seymour after making his morning trip had driven up in front of the business house and had just alighted on the sidewalk and was just in the act of unloading his produce when the sixty foot brick wall gave way falling into the street crushing him beneath the debris, breaking his neck causing instant death.

Clarence Luther Seymour, son of Wesley and Hattie Seymour, was born October 22, 1885, and departed this life April 1, 1926, aged 40 years, five months and nine days. He was united in marriage to Della Redfield August 28, 1914; three children were born to this union; Eloise, Bernice and Riffie.

In 1906 he was happily converted and joined the U. B. church near Circleville. He was a kind and loving father and husband, always looking after the joy and comfort of his family and others. He was never known to shirk a duty and his cheerful smile will be missed by all who knew him. He leaves to mourn his departure, his wife, two daughters, one son, mother, three sisters and a host of friends. His father, three brothers and one sister preceded him in death.

B. R. Calvert, William Anderson and Jacob Leist motored thru Saturday night and attended the funeral Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Methodist church in Liberty Center. The body was placed in the mausoleum in Young's cemetery.

URNS WORRY OVER TO "OTHER FELLOW"

Probably the oldest active newspaper editor and publisher in the United States is C. S. Parker of Arlington, Mass., publisher of the Arlington Advocate and Lexington Minute Man. He was born April 11, 1839. He is "on the job" every day, and his writing is like copper plate. Another unusual thing about Mr. Parker is that he belongs to a line which has lived continuously in Middlesex county, Mass., since 1635, says National Republic.

Seventy-one years ago Mr. Parker entered the office of the Woburn Journal as an apprentice. In 1861 he bought an interest in the Woburn Budget, but left his paper in the care of a brother who had returned from the Civil war that he might himself enlist in the Union army.

In 1874 Mr. Parker returned to the Arlington Advocate and for more than forty years has made a success of this paper. Mr. Parker gives this explanation of his longevity:

"Hard work don't kill. My motto has been, one day at a time; my purpose so far as possible, to let the other fellow do the worrying." Not a bad prescription, at all.

Jefferson Takes High Rank Among Realtors

Thomas Jefferson, among other things, was a clever realtor. If he lived in these days there would be few, if any, who would be rated higher than the famous Virginian. His most outstanding deal, of course, was the purchase of the entire West at the rate of four cents an acre. For a million square miles of territory, which has proved to be the richest mineral land in the world and among the most fertile of soil, he paid $11,250,000 in cash and assumed all claims on the land, the payment of which with interest and other charges brought the total price to $27,267,622. This land, acquired in 1803 from France, now comprises the thirteen states of Louisiana, Missouri, Arkansas, Iowa, Minnesota, North and South Dakota, Nebraska and Oklahoma, and the greater part of Kansas, Colorado, Wyoming and Montana, about five times the area of continental France.

The Reason

Rev. J. D. Morrison of Camden, discussing the Baptist convention's resolution in favor of penalizing non voters, said the other day:

"The typical nonvoter, when you reprove him, retorts with some complacent and utterly absurd reason for his nonvoting course.

"It reminds me of the man who complained to his wife:

"A year ago you said our marriage was made in heaven, yet now you order me around something awful."

"His wife answered calmly: "Order is heaven's first law."

America's Bus Routes

There are now more than 7,800 motor bus routes in America, being operated by 5,500 motor bus companies. The greatest bus-using region is the section north of the Ohio river and east of the Mississippi, where 2,700 bus companies operate 3,000 routes.

Guessed Wrong on Edison

A well-known explorer tells the story that he asked an Eskimo and later a South Sea Islander, who was President of the United States. Both answered "Edison."

AMUSEMENTS

"The Man Who Found Himself" the Paramount picture starring Thomas Meighan at the Met theater, is a story of a son of a small town banker who in order to save his younger "respectable" brother from a term in Sing Sing, gives himself up as the guilty party after a bank robbery.

The situation is this: Ralph Morgan, in the role of Edwin Macauley Jr., is sick and tired of hearing his wife ask him why it is he can't make a whole lot of money in a hurry so she can have some of the fine things of life. So he decides to take a "flyer" in Wall street.

The scheme falls thru, as most get-rich schemes usually do, and the boy is forced to borrow some forty-odd thousand dollars from the bank to "cover up" and besides that goes to rival banker to borrow money to replace in the vaults to keep his own accounts straight.

Now everything might have gone along more or less smoothly if the other man hadn't seen in this situation a chance to get rid of a dangerous business rival. He notifies the bank examiners with the above result.

Not satisfied with having shipped Meighan "up the river," the banker, Lon Morris, played by Frank Morgan (Ralph's brother in real life), who is also angling for the hand of Tom's sweetheart Nort Brooks, Virginia Valli tells the girl that Tom took the money to spend on another woman.

In Sing Sing, Tom soon wins the confidence of the warden and is made a trusty. Meanwhile Lon Morris works hard to win Nora and finally persuades her to marry him so her invalid sister may be comfortable.

Tom's father dies of grief, and soon after this the star gets another shock by reading of his girl's approaching wedding. He escapes from prison and with the help of two former convicts plans a clever trap for Morris.

To relate the scenes that follow would be only spoiling an evening of perfect entertainment. If you miss this one, you miss the greatest picture Tom Meighan ever made. And that's something!

Alfred E. Green, who directed Tom in "Back Home and Broke," "Pied Piper Malone," etc., made this one. Tom Geraghty wrote the screen play from an original story by Booth Tarkington, written especially for Mr. Meighan.

SOCIAL CALENDAR

The regular monthly meeting of the Ladies' society of Trinity Lutheran congregation was held Wednesday afternoon, April 7, in the social room of the church. The missionary paper for the month, "The Salzbergers," was read by Mrs. Wallace Crist and discussion of same by Mrs. Lewis Hohenstine. Fifty-nine members responded to the roll call. Business hour followed. During the social hour, the members were favored with vocal solos by Mrs. George Himrod, Mrs. James Moffit and Miss Lucile Howard. A delicious lunch consisting of ice cream, cake and coffee was served by the April committee.

Mrs. Charles Hall entertained her Thimble club Thursday afternoon at her home on Watt street.

The Sunshine class of the Methodist Episcopal church, met at the home of Miss Garnet Van Buskirk, of East Union street, on Tuesday evening, April 6, with Miss Anna Anderson as their leader. At the beginning of the meeting, the business was transacted which included the reading of the minutes of the last meeting, roll call payment of dues, and various other things. After the business meeting a piano solo was rendered by Ruth Fosnaugh. After this the meeting adjourned and refreshments consisting of sandwiches, pickles, cake and cocoa were served by Hermia Laughlin and Garnet Van Buskirk. The rest of the evening was spent in games and music.

A MINUTE A DAYMakes Milking Pay, Says Larowe Institute of Animal Economics.

One minute per cow per day spent in weighing out the feed consumed and milk produced by each animal, would show the dairyman which of his cows are really working for him and which are loafing on the job, according to the Larowe Institute of Animal Economics. Thirty-one seconds per milking is all the time the farmer needs to keep tab on the performance of each of the cows in his herd.

"The majority of dairymen who do not keep records of the feed consumption or milk production of the cows, are working under the delusion that the keeping of such records would take up more time than they could well afford to spare," according to the Institute. "They are wrong. Actual timing under practical conditions conducted by the Institute, shows that it takes only eleven seconds more per cow for each of two feedings to weigh out the exact feed, than it takes where the feed is not weighed. To weigh and record the milk from each cow was found to take only twenty seconds more per milking than it takes to just dump the milk over the cooler, or forty seconds for the two milkings. In all, no more than sixty-two seconds, or about a minute, is required to have a complete record of each cow's feed consumption and milk production. If that extra minute devoted to keeping records for say twenty cows, should reveal that one of them was a typical waster—in capable of producing milk in profitable quantities—the dairyman would not only be saved the countless hours devoted to its feeding and care, but he would find that he was better off at the end of the year with the remaining nineteen cows than he was with the original twenty.

"Roughly speaking, there are only three distinct types of cows. The Susies, who are good lookers, but simply haven't the capacity when it comes to the milk pail. All feeds they get above the amount required to produce their limited quantities of milk and keep them in condition, are wasted. The Betties are the thin, emaciated creatures who look as though they were ready to lie down and quit, but which have an inherited ability to produce milk that will often lead them to take it right off their own backs. Generally these are sadly underfed, so that they are using only a portion of their capacity. Then there are the Dollies—the army of waster cows that simply can't produce milk profitably. They eat and eat and their owners have neither beef nor milk to show for it. They are overdue at the butchers's. Such cows are in every herd where the dairyman does not feed in accordance with milk capacity and production. Keeping feed and milk records will show the dairyman how to profit from the Susies, cash in fully on the Betties, and how to avoid losses on the Dollies.

No Standpatter

Representative Frear, who refuses to censure England for restricting rubber, was the subject of an anecdote at a Washington tea.

"Oh, Frear!" said another representative. "Frear's always been obstinate. He'll never do what you tell him to.

"Why, once, when Frear was a boy, a crowd of bigger boys threw him overboard and told him to sink or swim."

"Which did he do?" said a pretty girl.

"He did neither, of course," said the representative. "He turned over on his back and floated."—Detroit Free Press.

Breeds Tailless Sheep

Nine years' experimental work in the development of a tailless breed of sheep, under the direction of Prof. James W. Wilson, director of the South Dakota experiment station at State college, is beginning to show results. Lambs have been born in the State college flock with tails so short that they do not have to be docked. They have been developed from crossing native Siberian rams with ewes of the Shropshire and Rambouillet breeds.

CANTON POLICE CHIEF GETS HIS PLACE BACK

Canton, April 7.—S. A. Lengel, removed as chief of police by Mayor S. M. Swarts on Feb. 23, has been reinstated by the civil service commission. The decision of the commission will be formally announced tomorrow.

Lengel was charged with inefficiency, incompetency and neglect of duty. He appealed to the civil service commission and his hearing lasted two weeks, during which time 72 persons testified. The only direct testimony offered at the hearing against the chief was that he used profanity. Lengel probably will resume his duties Saturday.

MRS. MINSHALL DIES SUDDENLY

Death Occurred This Morning at City Hospital—Had Been Ill Short Time.

The countless friends of Mrs. Addison P. Minshall, wife of the former mayor of the city, were shocked at the announcement of her death which occurred this morning at the city hospital. Mrs. Minshall had been ill but a short time and was taken to the hospital a few days ago. She was one of Chillicothe's most beloved women and her friends were widespread.

Edith Doty Minshall was born June 27, 1879, the daughter of Theodore and Martha Doty, of Portsmouth. She was married to Addison P. Minshall April 30, 1901. She was a loyal member of St. Paul's Episcopal church.

She leaves to mourn their loss, her husband, one daughter Julia, father, Theodore Doty, of Portsmouth; three brothers, Frank and Lucien Doty, of Portsmouth; Henry Doty, of Ironton; one sister, Mrs. J. I. Hudson, of Columbus.

The funeral services will be held from the residence at 2:30 o'clock Friday afternoon.—Chillicothe News-Advertiser.

x HARTMAN THEATER. x
x x x x x x x x

It is no exaggeration to say that Robert B. Mantell, dean of Shakespearean and classic actors on this continent, will hold a Shakespearean festival at the Hartman theater, Columbus, next week, which will also be his farewell engagement in Columbus, as he is making his final theatrical tour this season. "King Lear," "Macbeth" and "Hamlet," three widely different and great tragedies, and "As You Like It" and "The Merchant of Venice," two charming comedies, will be presented. And, to add a very special note of novelty "Hamlet" will be given in two different ways on Tuesday evening, April 13, in traditional manner—that is, with costumes and scenic effects always identified with the play and on Friday night, April 16, in modern manner—that is, with the dress and scenic background of 1926.

Mr. Mantell, by the way, was the first to give this tragedy in modern dress on this side of the Atlantic. At first he refused, but finally yielded to the public desire to see the play, that way, and gave it first in St. Louis, where it was received with such enthusiasm that he has since repeated it many times, and always to very large audiences. In the Pacific Coast cities of the United States also in Canada, it was warmly welcomed. How will Columbus like it?

"Merchant of Venice," one of the finest of all Shakespearean tragedies, will be the bill for the opening performance on Monday evening, also for Saturday matinee. "As You Like It" should prove a charming afternoon's entertainment for the ladies on Wednesday, with beautiful Genevieve Hamper as "Rosalind."

"Richelieu" is a fascinating character, with his wonderful knowledge of men, his love of power and his remarkable assumption of kingly right. Saturday afternoon "The Merchant of Venice" with the combination of comedy and tragedy, as exemplified by "Portia" and "Shylock" will be played, as it is always a favorite with the students, young and old. "Macbeth," that Scotch historical tragedy, will bring the engagement to a close—and a fitting one, since Robert Bruce Mantell was born in Scotland.

Genevieve Hamper, who is co-star with Mr. Mantell, will also have an opportunity to play many different parts during the week. She is a favorite with theatergoers by reason of her beauty and talents. The entire supporting company is composed of players who have made a special study of Shakespearean drama and the classics. Each play will have its own proper and adequate setting and costuming.

RUPTURE EXPERT HERE

Seeley Co.'s truss expert from Chicago will personally be at the Mithoff Hotel, and will remain in Lancaster Wednesday only, April 14. Mr. Seeley says: "The Spermatic Shield will not only retain any case of rupture perfectly, but contracts the opening in 10 days on the average case. Being a vast advancement over all former methods—exemplifying instantaneous effects immediately appreciable and withstanding any strain or position no matter the size or location. Large or difficult cases, or incisional ruptures (following operations) specially solicited. This instrument received the only award in England and in Spain, producing results without surgery, injections, medical treatments or prescriptions." Warning — All Cases should be cautioned against the use of any elastic or web truss with understraps, as same rest where the lump is and not where the opening is, producing complications necessitating surgical operations. Mr. Seeley has documents from the United States inspection. Our representative will be glad to demonstrate without charge or fit them if desired. Incentive is the power behind action. It is the impulse that causes the brain to command the muscles. The proper incentive is all any man needs to do his best or his worst. Remove the incentive, and the power stops. Where there is incentive, there is also gain. YOUNG MAN DROWNED IN PAINT CREEK

Suspension Bridge on Which Clifford George Was Crossing Gave Way.

Clifford George, aged seventeen, lost his life in the north fork of Paint creek, near New Holland, Thursday evening, when the suspension bridge on which he was crossing gave way, throwing him into the water.

The youth was caught in the wires of the bridge and was unable to extricate himself. His body has not been recovered. Dragging of the creek was begun this morning.

The boy was returning from across the creek where he had been on an errand, mailing a letter when he was drowned. Altho his father was near the bridge when it went down, he was unable to render his son assistance, as he could not swim.

The boy was a son of Mr. and Mrs. John George, who occupy the farm of Fred J. Ebert, just south of the village. His mother is a patient in Mt. Carmel hospital Columbus, and the lad was a senior in the high school. Besides his parents, he is survived by several brothers and sisters.

COUPLE ENJOYS MARRIED LIFE HALF CENTURY

Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Gessley Celebrate Golden Anniversary on Friday.

Wedded fifty years ago in a little church, St. Paul's, Madison township, Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Gessles today at their home on East Franklin street their home on East Franklin street, celebrated the golden anniversary. When Rudolph Gessley and Emma Victoria Marburger were made one, there was not an automobile in the land, the telephone had just been invented and was considered only the whim of an enthusiastic and visionary dreamer.

The couple at that time knew nothing of electricity or the airplane, but they seemed to have gotten nicely and are wonderfully well preserved. It was while on a visit to his aunt, Mrs. Jacob Bowers, at East Ringgold, that they met the first time. Down thru the half century they have traveled in fair weather and foul, always making a daughter the best of everything.

Mr. Gessley was born in New York city in 1853 and his wife was born near East Ringgold in 1865, a daughter of John and Ellen Marburger. The home was beautifully decorated for the occasion, the color scheme being white and yellow. Snapdragons, white and yellow Calla lilies and roses were used.

Mr. Gessley has been the secretary of the local lodge of Elks for a number of years and the lodge presented him with a purse of gold. Three golden cakes helped to make up the dinner which was served at noon.

Covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. Orrin L. Gessley and children, Rudolph II, and Katharine Gessley, of this city; Mr. and Mrs. J. O. L. Friece and sons, Henry and Richard, of Crafton, Pennsylvania, and Bauldin Becher, of this city, children and grandchildren of Mr. and Mrs. Gessley; Mrs. Herbert Tranter, Mrs. Marcus Wills and Mrs. John R. Lehman of Dayton; Dr. and Mrs. T.
